

THE
QUARTERLY JOURNAL
OF ENGINEERING
GEOLOGY

Vol. 1, no. 4 30 June 1969 Price 30 shillings
Published by The Geological Society of London

GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF LONDON

President	Professor T. N. George, D.SC. PH.D. D- ES -SC. F.R.S. F.R.S.E.
Secretaries	Mr W. B. Harland, M.A. F.R.A.S. Dr H. W. Ball
Foreign Secretary	Mr N. L. Falcon, M.A. F.R.S. F.INST.PET.
Treasurer	Dr W. Bullerwell, F.INST.P. F.R.A.S.

ENGINEERING GROUP EDITORIAL SUB-COMMITTEE

Chairman	Mr R. Glossop, B.SC. M.I.C.E. M.I.M.M.
Secretary	Mr J. E. Farnaby, M.SC. D.I.C. A.M.I.C.E. A.M.I.STRUCT.E. Dr J. L. Knill, D.I.C. A.R.C.S. Dr G. Lees, B.SC. A.INST.H.E. Mr G. E. Satterthwaite, F.R.A.S.

THE QUARTERLY JOURNAL OF ENGINEERING GEOLOGY

The scope of the journal, within the field of engineering geology, will be widely drawn. The journal is open to contributions from Fellows and non-Fellows of the Society, in this country and overseas. Papers will be considered which deal with any of the subjects within the field of geology as applied to civil engineering and mining practice, including rock mechanics, soil mechanics and geotechnics; applied sedimentology, pedology, mineralogy and petrology; geohydrology and hydrogeology; and engineering application of geophysics.

Case histories and review articles of a more general character will also be considered, particularly if these are of a timely nature. It will be editorial policy occasionally to group several related papers together in the same issue.

Editors:

Dr G. Lees, B.SC. A.INST.H.E.
Department of Transportation &
Environmental Planning,
P.O. Box 363, The University,
Birmingham 15.
Telephone Selly Oak (021-SEL) 1301, ext. 589

Mr G. E. Satterthwaite, F.R.A.S.
Geological Society of London,
Burlington House,
Piccadilly,
London W 1.
Telephone 01-734 2356

Annual subscription: £5.0.0 ($17.00), post free

Contents

P. G. FOOKES & D. G. PARRISH: Observations on small-scale structural discontinuities in the London Clay and their relationship to regional geology	. 217
R. A. DOWNING & F. HOWITT: Saline ground-waters in the Carboniferous rocks of the English East Midlands in relation to the geology 241
D. G. PRICE, A. B. MALKIN & J. L. KNILL: Foundations of multi-storey blocks on the Coal Measures with special reference to old mine workings	. . . 271
Some papers accepted for publication in forthcoming issues 323

Published by

THE GEOLOGICAL SOCIETY OF LONDON
Burlington House, Piccadilly, London W 1

Printed by

J. W. ARROWSMITH LIMITED
Winterstoke Road, Bristol 3